David Winograd

David Winograd was Principal Tubist with the Hudson Valley Philharmonic

Orchestra from 1973-2008. His studies at New York University (B.S.) and the Manhattan School of Music (M.M.) included tuba lessons with Don Butterfield and Herb Wekselblatt. He has played with such notables and varied groups as the American Symphony Orchestra, the Barnum & Bailey Circus, Les and Larry Elgart Big Band, Jimmy Dorsey Orchestra, Milton Berle, Robert Merrill, Wynton Marsalis, Van Cliburn, Nancy Wilson, Richie Havens, and Pincus Zuckerman. Additionally he is engaged in providing musical clinics for children with his Hudson Valley Brass Quintet and Hudson Valley Families Quintet, opening new vistas to young minds.

He heads David Winograd Entertainment, a talent-booking agency.

He is the leader of his own Swing/Dixie/Motown/R&B group, "The Saints of Swing", and plays in many other free-lance ensembles.

He was Director of the Dutchess Community College Music School, Poughkeepsie, New York (from 1996 until 2003).

He was Director of Entertainment, Music Director, and Master of Ceremonies at the Granit Hotel & Country Club, Kerhonkson, NY (1980-1997).

For many years he was the Music & Entertainment Director for the "Reach For The Stars" ARC (Associations for Retarded Citizens) Telethon.

He is currently the co-president of the Kerhonkson Synagogue, and sounds a mighty Shofar for the High Holy Days.

He has 3 grown children, Jessica, Eli, and Rachel, all involved in the arts.
