Thunder Ridge Plays Grandstand Sidebar Saturday and Sunday of the Fair

Rhinebeck NY.....Thunder Ridge is a five-piece country-rock band performing songs by artists such as Carrie Underwood, Band Perry, Sugarland, Jason Aldean and many, many more.

The band consists of Dorraine Scofield, Chris Walsh, Larry Federman, J.B. Hunt and Bruce Hutchins. Each of the band members brings their skills to what is one of the most well-known country rock bands in the Hudson Valley.

Thunder Ridge was the winner of the 1996 True Valley Country Showdown, the largest music contest in the country. Their multi-talents have earned the band opportunities to perform at shows with Ricky Skaggs, Sawyer Brown, Charlie Daniels and other award winning artists.

Continuing to play concerts, fairs and festivals and private bookings, Thunder Ridge has been going strong since 1992! With plenty of experience behind them, the groups is still one of the hardest-working and popular bands in the area. Their repertoire is highly varied and consist of new country music as well as some classic rock & roll songs – sure to please most everyone.

Catch them in the Dutchess County Fair’s Grandstand Sidebar on Saturday August 26 from 7pm – 10pm and Sunday August 27 4pm – 6pm.

The Dutchess County Fair begins its six day run on August 22 – August 27. For more information or to purchase tickets, visit dutchessfair.com.
