August 3, 2021

Rhinebeck, NY –With the Dutchess County Fair preparing to welcome fairgoers back to the grounds for the 175th Dutchess County Fair beginning on August 24, organizers are eager to share some helpful hints to help you prepare for your visit prior to and during your day at the Fair.

BEFORE:

AVOID THE LINES – Buy your tickets ahead of time at www.dutchessfair.com. Tickets are NOT day specific.

HEALTH & SAFETY – Follow CDC COVID guidelines. Wash your hands & follow traffic patterns. If you don't feel good, please stay home.

PARKING - Parking is always free. Our lots are visibly marked. Make note of where you are parked to help you find your vehicle at the end of the day.

CHECK THE WEATHER - Although it's always sunny and beautiful in Rhinebeck, sometimes Mother Nature does not play nice. Check the forecast in case you need to bring sunscreen, a hat, a sweatshirt, or rain gear.

WEAR COMFY SHOES – there's a lot of ground to cover. There are plenty of places to sit for your convenience.

CHILDREN – Take a photo of what your child(ren) is wearing the day you come to the Fair. This can be very helpful to us in case you get separated from them while you are here.
