SPECIAL BEEF HERDSMAN AWARD (following Parade of Champions on Sunday)

All herd units of 3 or more will be judged by a different judge each day and a top Beef Herdsman will receive a prize donated by the Dutchess County Agricultural Society. This award will be given approximately 5pm on Sunday, the last day of the fair. This award will be judged once a day by older 4-H members from the 4-H Beef Club of Dutchess County.

Herdsman will be judged on:

- A) Cooperative effort - Willingness to cooperate with management and fellow exhibitors. Courtesy and willingness to follow all regulations. Neat appearance and courtesy to the public at all times.
- B) Cattle on Exhibit - Cattle tied and presented with the best effect. Cattle kept neat and properly fitted and cattle fed and watered at regular intervals. Tie outs MUST be kept clean.
- C) Barn Aisles kept clean and free for spectators' use.

Exhibit cards are neatly displayed, equipment kept in show boxes, feed kept in feed aisles and manure piled in a single pile at the end of the barn.

Show day, all herdsman will be judged on promptness in the show ring, having cattle in the ring at the proper time for championship classes, and sportsmanship to other exhibitors. In addition, Dutchess County Fair will award prizes of $50, $35 and $25 and will be mailed.
